Award Given District Two For Clean-Up

Reservation Area
Wins Lions' Club
Trophy Second Time

District 2 for the second straight year, won the Lions club trophy as the area showing the greatest improvement following the Fall Clean-Up campaign which closed October 14.

The decision to award the trophy to District 2 came after an inspection of the city by Bob Bennett, chairman of the City Beautification committee, City Manager William E. Alworth, Councilmen Florian Boyd and Gordon Feekings.

THE TROPHY was awarded to Wally Waring, district chairman by Mayor Charley Farrell during the city council session Wednesday night.

Bennett said that District 2, under the leadership of Wally Waring, carried more than 75 truck loads of rubbish to the city dump during the campaign. No other district in the city even approached the halfway mark set by the winning district.

"Nevertheless, the city sparkles," declared Bob Bennett.

THE COMMITTEE chairman again emphasized that the clean-up period is not over for a few people in the Village.

"These people who refused to clean up their yards without a doubt he cited to appear in court as violators of existing ordinances," declared Bennett.

Statistics during the clean-up campaign which started November 6 indicate that truck loads of debris were greater in number than last Spring's drive. Fire Chief Bill Leonosio reported that 250 permits were issued to property owners for the burning of trash.

This Side Of The Sun

By Phat

Clean-up week has come and gone.
Western Week was gay.
There's more to come so plan right now
To stay here all through May

Of course, that's rushing the season but there are good precedents for being premature: (a) Many cities had their Christmas decorations up even before they picked the pin feathers off the Thanksgiving Turkey and (b) the strophe I had planned for the top of today's thing wouldn't jell.

... The way the radio stations are slapping on that "White Christmas" record on every station these days indicates that the discs are going to be as scratchy as eastern underwear come the happy Yule day. . . . Started to write "Come Michaelmas" but, through a happy inspiration, checked with Mr. Webster and found that Michaelmas was last September.

WHICH REMINDS me of a nasty communication I received this week. . . . Last time this piece made the public prints, I commented on looking up something in Mr. Webster's tome and it came out "Mrs. Webster." . . . That prompted a Villager to sneer: "Just because you get lazy once in a while and let Mrs. G write your column, don't get the idea Noah let his wife write the dictionary." . . . Another communication of interest came from San Bernardino from a woman who, after a visit here, went to Barstow. . . . She wrote: "On the other side of Cajon pass I thought I was in Los Angeles smog. Couldn't see the sun or the mountains. . . . Just a yellowish gray haze. . . . Checked and found it was from the cement mills near Victorville. . . . That's something for Palm Springs to ponder. . . . When atmospheric pressure is just right, the dust WILL settle."

FIRE CHIEF BILL LEONOSIO is also rushing the season. . . . Through his aide, Fire Marshal Warren Heath, he let it be known this week that January 15, 1949, is FIREMAN'S NIGHT. . . . That's the night of the annual Fireman's ball. . . . Heath said they are putting out this information early and often. . . . Last time the firemen aided in a big affair, the Fish and Game Assoc's barbecue, other important events were scheduled for the same night. . . . And they all suffered. . . . This time, according to Heath, they are giving ample notice so that others can lay off. . . . It would be a good department to start at the chamber of commerce—a clearing house for meeting dates so that there wouldn't be conflicts.

Movie Director's Loss to Burglar Now Tops $3000

Operations of a daring light-footed burglar who Sunday morning raided the room in which William Perlberg, noted motion picture director for Twentieth Century Fox, was sleeping, netted him more than $3000 in money and jewelry, a complete report to police by the victim revealed this week.

First report was made Sunday at 10 a. m. by Perlberg to Sergeant Orest Johnson. At that time money and jewels taken amounted to approximately $2500. Later, further contact with the director, via long distance to his studio in Hollywood, revealed that additional money and jewelry had been taken by the soft-stepping burglar with the total loss estimated at approximately $3000.

THE THEFT took place sometime after 4:30 a. m. Sunday. It was at that hour that Perlberg and his wife returned from an impromptu show participated in by some of the outstanding stars of radio and screen.

On awakening sometime after 8 a. m. Sunday, Perlberg donned his trousers just a few feet from where he slept to discover that a clip with $800 in currency was missing. A search revealed that his wife's purses had been ransacked and several jewel boxes emptied.

SERGEANT JOHNSON, seeking full details of the burglary, found Perlberg hard to locate after his first report. Then the director telephoned from Hollywood and reported additional values as missing.

Police are searching for the burglar. An all-points bulletin describing the jewels was sent out statewide by police.

Edwin Sobanski, painter living at Tramvay Village told police of his narrow escape from a speeding automobile operated by two hotrods while painting a school zone area in front of the St. Theresa parochial school Wednesday.

When the hotrods turned and headed the automobile back again, Sobanski stopped them by blocking the road with his vehicle. The two juvenile hotrods then got out of their automobile, kicked wooden block signs all over the terrain, moved his truck and proceeded on their way. Police are searching for the boys.

Gets Nothing
Lee Dogue, 522 Calle Encilla, reported to police that a car thief had shattered the window of his automobile parked on Palm Canyon drive early Wednesday and ransacked the interior. Nothing was taken.

Noted Designer Foresees Village as Style Arbiter

Recognized as one of the foremost designers of women's styles both in America and Europe for thirty years, whose creations have been featured in numerous salons, Harry A. Drucker, designer for Vanguard Fashions of Los Angeles is vacationing for two weeks in Palm Springs, having just completed a line of creations for spring.

The noted stylist is spending his holiday visiting with friends and studying the moods and motifs of Palm Springs resorts and dude ranches and the desert mountain area, sketching ideas for future creations.

"PARIS HAS LOST its crown as queen of the style world principally because of the development of new tastes in styles which have been created through such fabulous spots as Palm Springs," Drucker said.

Junior C. of C. Members Put Village on Air Map

Palm Springs got on the map as a port on National Airway No. 1 this week.

Members of the Junior chamber of commerce put it there when they clambered on to the roof of the big shed hangar at the local airport and painted "PALM SPRINGS" in letters 20 feet high in a sign 300 feet long.

Members of the organization have been working week ends on the sign to designate the city on the airway so marked by the civil aeronautics association.

Paint for the job was designated by local paint firms.

The marker emblazons the name of the Village with an arrow pointing north and latitude and longitude figures.

The sign is in chrome yellow, outlined in black against a background of aluminum.

Visibility of the marker is excellent and the name may be seen by all who fly across the valley. Tests have revealed that it can be spotted from great distances.

President Robert Backstrom of the Junior chamber said the marker project is just one of the many the organization is planning for Palm Springs this season.

City Council Regrets But--- No Cash for Santa Claus

Christmas spirit and Christmas decorations for the streets of Palm Springs enlivened an otherwise prosaic council session Wednesday.

Junior chamber of commerce, represented by Dick Beaumont and Jack Reed, pointed out to council that lack of Christmas decorations on Palm Canyon drive in the past has more than dampened the Yuletide spirit for Villagers and visitors.

What Beaumont and Reed couldn't understand was why the Junior chamber of commerce couldn't get some of the money voted the senior chamber of commerce for advertising and publicity purposes.

THE LATTER QUESTION came up when a request for at least $500 to defray part of the expenses was turned down because of a lack of funds in the city treasury and because Christmas decorations were unintentionally omitted from the annual budget.

Beaumont, who opened the plea of Jaycees, pointed out that $3500 would pay for decorations that could be used from year to year and that the members of his organization would do the erecting of the electric stars, bells and other decorations.

WHEN THIS PLEA failed because Councilman Florian Boyd said the city was faced with a heavy deficit by July 1, Reed asked if the small sum of $500 by comparison could not be earmarked for embellishments this year.

In the end the Junior chamber of Commerce was asked to solicit the money necessary from businessmen in town and the council offered consolation to the disappointed of the two young men by passing a resolution endorsing their plan.

Hoofbeats Heard By City Council

Horses, horses, horses, particularly those Los Compadres plan to stable at Araby point against the wishes of homes owners in that area, galloped in on council Wednesday night.

Bob Bennett, in council chambers on other business, defended the riding organization of which he is a member against the attack of George Miller resident at Araby Point.

Hilton McCabe, attorney for the protesting owners, suggested to Mayor Charley Farrell that a committee be appointed to iron out the differences.

This suggestion was accepted and Councilman Ruth Harding was appointed chairman, with John Connell planning commission, Charley Woodman, city planner, John Munholland, owner of the land leased to Los Compadres, Roland Vaile, park commission, Phil Delano, ex-president of Los Compadres and McCabe as the others.

Following the debate, Councilwoman Hardy recommended that ground rental space for the riding club at the Field Club be considered by council.

Business Women Start Christmas Tree Program

Christmas is in the air and Business Women's club members, meeting this week, heard the jingling bells and started preparations for the Community Christmas tree.

Mrs. Mildred Veano, club president, reminded Villagers that the Community Christmas tree, sponsored annually by the club, needs contributions within the next two weeks.

"Mail your contributions to Box 162, Palm Springs, payable to the Community Christmas tree fund," she said. "Get behind the business women and help them bring Santa Claus into every Village home."

Council Backs League Stand

City Council Wednesday passed a resolution endorsing the stand of the California League of Cities now seeking a change in the law requiring heavy surveying expense before a street improvement assessment district can be established.

It was pointed out that from $3000 to $5000 can be spent in engineering work only to have that sum go for naught after the first public hearing on the assessment district. The law sought would permit public hearing first.

Welfare Group Sounds Appeal

Reports and plans were on the program when Welfare and Friendly Aid society met in regular session Wednesday with Mrs. Barney Hinkle, chairman, presiding.

Mrs. Fred Ingram reported on plans for the annual Christmas party and Mrs. George B. Davies sounded another appeal for donations of household goods and clean clothing to the House of Friendly Aid maintained by the association.

Controversial Sign Measure Is Abandoned

City Attorney Will Write New Law to Meet Objections

Finis was written Wednesday night to the two-month battle between businessmen and council over enforcement of the existing controversial sign ordinance.

Councilman Gordon Feekings, chairman of a committee representing businessmen, city planners and city council presented report of that committee's findings which was accepted. In effect it kills the present ordinance.

Following acceptance of the report, City Attorney Roy Colegate was ordered to write a new ordinance. The new law will permit those who obtained sign permits since the enactment of the 1940 ordinance to retain those signs.

"Anyone who had a sign erected without obtaining a permit will have to conform with the new sign ordinance," the attorney said, but signs erected prior to incorporation will be allowed to remain on buildings.

Parking Meter Bids Studied, Council Told

City Manager William Alworth told council Wednesday that bids for purchase of downtown parking meters, opened Monday at 2 p. m., were under study today.

Seven bids were submitted by parking meter manufacturers and will be placed in the hands of a council committee for consideration.

Councilman Florian Boyd asked spectators in the crowded council chamber what they thought about the installation of meters in Palm Springs. A half dozen citizens arose to approve the plan.

Harry Brott Goes to Hospital

Harry Brott, owner of the Desert Drug company and old-time Villager left Wednesday morning for Santa Monica where he will enter St. John's Hospital for a two-week period of observation by Doctors Stanley Immerman and Charles Hyatt.

Council O.K. Given Police Station Plans

Agreement submitted by Architects Clark and Frey for plans, specifications and construction of a 1250-square-foot addition to present facilities at Palm Springs police station was approved by council Wednesday night.

The new addition will provide detention quarters for women and juveniles, space for storage room, photographic laboratory, police record bureau and locker room for members of the police force. A meeting room for members of the staff for briefing is also provided.

When the architects complete the plans and specifications, they will be handed to council for advertisement of bids for the construction of the addition.

Ring Around the Tub Clue In Nervy Daylight Burglary

Cleanliness is next to Godliness, so they say, and a burglar who figured that a gentleman of his calling could not be the latter, made sure that he was the former.

And so police are seeking a nervy prowler who took time out during a leisurely raid on a Village apartment to take a bath.

Louis M. Peatee, 1833 South Palm Canyon drive, reported the burglary to the police, saying that clothing, and other personal effects amounting to approximately $500 were missing.

Detective Durman Ordway who investigated the raid said the burglar, after entering the second story apartment through a window with the aid of a ladder, took a bath leaving the bathroom in disorderly array and then took his time choosing the loot he took with him. He even left a ring around the tub.

Peatee said he noticed a young man sitting on the staircase, when he departed for work early Tuesday morning. When he returned at 6 p. m., he discovered the burglary. The ladder, left standing by the thief, was removed by another tenant in the building.

Oakland Publisher Guest At Rancho Mirage Home

"The life of a newspaperman's wife is exciting, she meets so many interesting people."

So declared Mrs. Russell Knowland, whose husband is assistant publisher of the Oakland Tribune which employs more than 800 persons and has a daily circulation of 140,000 on week days and 160,000 on Sunday.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Knowland have been guests for the last two weeks at the Rancho Mirage home of Mr. and Mrs. William Reichel. The Reichels returned to their date garden home on the desert following the presidential campaign when Reichel acted as Republican chairman for Northern California.

THE 49-YEAR-OLD KNOWLAND, brother of Senator William Knowland, echoed his wife's remarks declaring "I do not know any other business, except that of newspaper work."

He explained that his father, Joseph, who served for six terms in the house or representatives and several terms in the state legislature, bought the Oakland

Tribune in 1916 when he (Russell) was only 17 and his brother, the senator, several years younger.

Both brothers are University of California graduates where they majored in political science. But it was Russell who went directly from college to work on the Tribune and his brother, William who graduated in 1920 entered politics serving from 1930 to 1932 in the state assembly and from 1932 to 1936 in the state senate.

AS A NEWSPAPERMAN, Knowland declared that "if I had the opportunity to choose again it would be the same work I'm doing now."

He said that the constant changing scene into which a newspaperman is projected is the magnet that keeps him and others in that profession.

Knowland has worked in all

Blast Shakes Large Area Around Plaza

Forgotten Fuel Tank
Rips Up Street But Other Damage Light

Pedestrians and automobilist narrowly escaped injury when a forgotten gasoline tank mysteriously exploded at the eastern entrance to the Plaza around 5 p. m. Tuesday.

The gas tank, part of an abandoned filling station said to have been established in 1936 and which closed two years later, is believed to have exploded by electrolytic action when the tank, probably rusted through years of dis-service, collapsed.

PART OF THE PLAZA property and city owned land heaved upward with the explosion causing damages to the area 60 foot square. Huge slabs of pavement were tossed into awkward angles.

An unidentified motorist who reported the explosion to police said his automobile was pushed sideways for several feet as he was about to drive away from the area.

Damages to city and Plaza property is covered by insurance, it was announced.

The Plaza Date Shop now in the building once used as the filling station was not damaged by the explosion. Fire Chief Bill Leonosio said.

Damage is being studied today by insurance agent Alvin Weldon.

Palm Canyon Paving Assured
Re-surfacing of Palm Canyon drive before the end of the fiscal year, June 30, is assured, City Manager William E. Alworth told council Wednesday. He said the California highway commission has included the work in its current budget.

The work will extend two and one-half miles and cost $40,000, Alworth said. Application by the city for the work will be made in February and the job probably completed by June 30.

The PUBLISHER'S by OLIVER B. JAYNES—Corner

TROUBLE STARTED in Riverside county when Mr. S. A. Guiberson arrived from Texas to build a cement mill in the Palm Springs health and recreational area. It grows worse day by day. In their campaign to establish this heavy industry over the objection of Palm Springs, the Guiberson interests have created political strife throughout the county, pitted communities against each other and organized groups in communities around Palm Springs and goaded them with glowing promises of what their cement would do for the communities, the veterans, the building industry and even the United States. They went so far as to talk about another world war. Otherwise friendly communities and neighbors were incited to bitter controversy. Groups within the towns lined up against each other. Every community has its chronic trouble-makers who grasp at such opportunities to get themselves in the spotlight.

The planning commissioners and the supervisors, after lengthy public hearings, approved the zoning ordinance that protects the Palm Springs area from ruin by heavy industry. But the gentleman from Texas will not accept the verdict of our county officials. He and his cement plant associates injected themselves into the supervisory elections and attempted to incite a recall of Jim Easley, supervisor from this district. They lined-up a radio station and newspaper to go all-out for their campaign to oust county officials who voted for the zoning ordinance. This method of getting control of governmental bodies is not new, of course, but Riverside county has been free from such trouble-making for a long time. This sort of meddling into county politics serves no good purpose but the special interests back of it. Let us hope that the people of this county will see through this campaign of the Guiberson interests and take it for just what it is worth. Let us hope that they will not permit these special interests to come into this county and create strife among us.

ONE BIG ARGUMENT advanced by the Guiberson interests as favoring their cement mill exploded right in their faces this week. They have almost worked themselves into a frenzy over the cement shortage which, they said, was preventing veterans from getting homes and the west from getting dams! Right in the face of these claims the Riverside cement plant cut production by about 20 percent this week. It just goes to show that our people shouldn't allow themselves to be swept off their feet by such claims.

The vast benefits which Guiberson says his mill would bring to the Pass area and Riverside—and the nation—are probably as exaggerated as this cry of shortages. Indeed, have the people of Banning and others who hope to profit by the plant, any assurance that it will even be built if Guiberson DOES get his permit to go ahead? There is no more certainty to Mr. Guiberson's glowing picture of prosperity produced by his mill than his "guarantee" that it will not be a dust menace to the Palm Springs area.

Let's not be fooled!

Tuthill Loses Last Appeal In Life Fight

Cathedral Man's Plea to Supreme Court is Denied

Marvin J. Tuthill, Cathedral City plumber, must pay with his life for the slaying of Charlotte Beverly, a nurse, last New Year's morning.

California supreme court in session Monday denied his last appeal from the death sentence imposed by county superior court last Spring.

Tuthill was convicted of the murder of Mrs. Beverly and sentenced to die after a long trial in county court. He was accused of awaiting the return of the nurse in the apartment in which they were living in a Cathedral City auto court and of fatally shooting her early January 1, this year.

The supreme court earlier this year had denied his automatic appeal from the death sentence. His originally scheduled execution, set for April 2, was delayed pending the new appeal which was lost this week.

In refusing to intervene further in the case, the court ruled that new evidence submitted by Tuthill's attorneys was not sufficient to warrant a new trial.

The Naval Ordnance test station, Inyokern, Calif., roughly equals the State of Rhode Island in size.

CASSING UP more than 150 planes here over the week-end at the Palm Springs Airport, all hands pitched in to help out. Here are seen Winifred Wood, publicity director for the Airport, and Caryl Jones, in charge of the Veteran's Flight Program, as they lend an assist. Both these young ladies were WASPS during the war, and have several thousands of hours flying time to their credit. They have both been in the flying game constantly since 1941. Caryl Jones' flight instruction experience includes time at ground and flying schools in single and multi-engine planes at Montana, Florida, Texas and in California. Their nicknames, we forgot to say, are Winnie and Suds. (Photo by De Thurmond.)

Christmas Gifts Auxiliary Topic

American Legion auxiliary to Owen B. Coffman post met in busy session Tuesday night at Legion Hall with President Dorothy Morrison in the chair.

Plans for contributions to the fund for Christmas cheer for orphans of veterans and veterans in hospitals were discussed. Mrs. Morrison announced receipt of word from district headquarters of the appointment of Mrs. Robert Ellsworth to the Pan-American committee.

Next district meeting will be held at Santa Ana December 1.

Persons' Appeal Is Again Denied

Bitter fight waged by Myron Persons to secure a change in zoning, from R-1 to an R-3 on Cahuilla road between Baristo and Ramon roads went down to defeat for the third time before council Wednesday.

Persons' appeal from an adverse decision of planning commission to council early last month. Council at that time referred it back again to the planners. Wednesday night the action of planning commission was adverse again and this recommendation was sustained by council.

County Building Law Considered By Supervisors

Enactment of a county building ordinance to cover unincorporated territory was under consideration today by supervisors following protests aired by a Blythe man which brought the matter to a head.

Martin Green, Blythe contractor, asked a refund for a building permit fee he had paid because "others were building all around him without permits."

Supervisors turned down his demand but decided to look into the permit situation more thoroughly.

IT WAS REPORTED that the Riley act, which requires a county permit for a building intended for public use, is being frequently violated in the county.

"But just because too many people do not know about it," according to board members.

That brought up the question for a general county building ordinance which would require permits for all construction. The Riley act exempts dwelling and farm buildings from permits.

IT WAS ATTACKED, however, by Supervisor Easley, A. C. Keith, county surveyor, and Tyler Suess, covercounty planner, because it did not cover sanitation, wiring or other standards.

Suess said it took an earthquake to awaken Los Angeles county to the need of such an ordinance and hoped Riverside county would not await a quake to shock it into realization that building supervision was indicated.

Chairman W. V. Pittman said the board would look into the matter next week.

Turkey Prices To be Higher Is Reminder

Turkey prices are going to be higher this year, L. P. Sharp, assistant farm advisor, warned county housewives this week.

There are two main factors contributing to the high prices, he adds. First, the national crop is small this year. The California crop will be ten to twelve per cent higher this year than last, and that means many turkeys grown in California will be sent to ready markets for them in the East.

Second, the hold-over of turkeys in cold storage from last year is very small. An August 1 of this year there were only around 19,000,000 turkeys in cold storage as compared with 59,000,000 on August 1 last year.

Chairman for the day, Francis Crocker, local Calelectric manager, introduced the speaker.

President Frank A. Purcell announced that there would be no meeting of the club next week because of the Thanksgiving Day holiday.

Rabbi Pressman Addresses Group

Palm Springs Jewish Community Center was privileged last Monday evening to hear an address by Rabbi Jacob Pressman, associate rabbi of Sinai Temple in Los Angeles. Speaking to a large audience at the El Paseo theatre, Rabbi Pressman spoke on "The Importance of Unity and Its Effect on the Successful Growth of a Community."

Rabbi Pressman was originally from Philadelphia, graduating from the University of Pennsylvania and the Jewish Theological Seminary of America. He is chairman of the Zionist Youth Commission of Southern California as well as registrar of the University of Judaism in Los Angeles.

After such an informative and inspiring address, the members are most certainly looking forward to more fine speakers of this high caliber during the coming season here in Palm Springs.

Two New City Laws Under Study Today

Two ordinances were introduced at council session Wednesday.

The first, by Councilman Florian Boyd, provides that where state licenses are required for the practice of any profession or conduct of any business in the Village, no city license shall be issued without investigation of the state permit first. Councilwoman Ruth Hardy introduced an ordinance seeking control of explosives within city limits.

Relief plate printing was the first form of illustrating.

Seven Million For Highways In County

Senator Dilworth Reports on Senate Committee Session

Upwards of seven million dollars will be spent on new highway construction in Riverside county during the three-year period ending June 30, 1950 it was disclosed yesterday by the state division of highways at a Los Angeles hearing before the state senate committee on Transportation.

The public hearing in the state building at Los Angeles where southern California was represented by Senator Nelson S. Dilworth of Hemet, dealt particularly with operation of the new state highway bill which became effective this year. Also under discussion was the division of Highways program for the post-war era and plans for the period ending June 30, 1950.

SENATOR DILWORTH said on his return home the hearing brought out that a grand total of 965 contracts for improvements amounting to more than $218,000,000 have been let for California state division of highways work since the close of World War II. He said that 283 of these contracts are now under way, representing improvements totaling more than $97,000,000.

New state highway construction for the period commencing July 1, 1947, and ending June 30, 1950, totals $6,858,000 for this county, Senator Dilworth said. He explained that the division of highways budget for the unexpired span of the three-year period is now in the hands of Gov. Earl Warren.

Museum Notes

The subject of tonight's Biology session, fifth in the current series, will be "Insects." The accompanying short films will be: "Beneath Our Feet," "Aphids," "Beetles," "Pond Insects," "People of the Ponds."

Tomorrow the field trip will be an auto caravan to White-water canyon and the fish hatchery. Leave the Museum at 10 a. m., return at 4. Bring lunch and water. No hiking is involved in this trip.

TOMORROW NIGHT C. B. Perkins of the San Diego Zoo's Reptile House will speak on "Common Desert Snakes." Mr. Perkins is a well-known herpetologist, and is also a member of the Scientific Advisory Board of the Desert Museum. Program open to the public at 8 p. m.

Next Monday night at 8 o'clock Harlow Jones of Twenty-Nine Palms will address the Desert Photography group at the Museum. The subject of his talk will be "Desert Movie Photography." Illustrated with color movies, Frank Givens, custodian of Joshua Tree National Monument, will accompany Mr. Jones.

NEXT TUESDAY at 8 p. m. four natural history films will be shown. They are: "Devil's Island—Martinique," "Dwellers of the Cold Country," "Time," and "The Deer of California." Open to the public without charge.

On Thursday, November 25, Thanksgiving night, a special program for members only will be presented at 8 o'clock. The great documentary film, "Grass," will be shown, together with another film entitled "Australia Today." The picture "Grass" is being repeated by request, having been shown to a capacity audience last season. It depicts the amazing migration of thousands of people with their cattle, across Persia over a snow-and-ice covered mountain pass. Open to members only.

Sympathetic—But Can't Do a Thing By Dr. Fendrich

The supervisors were sympathetic—but helpless.

The problem before them had to do with people who plow up desert land while the wind is blowing and involved irate housewives of the Coachella area who asked the board to do something to keep the resultant dust out of their homes.

Outside of suggesting that the offending plowmen wet down the dirt first, supervisors had no solution.

Many Take Part In Hike to Tahquitz

Last Saturday's field trip to Tahquitz Falls was participated in by the following thirty-six persons: Mrs. Barney Bourne, Pamela and Skippy; Mrs. Pauline Fardellus; Mr. and Mrs. Alex Felton; Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fuller; Mr. Garrison and son; Mr. and Mrs. John Greb; Mrs. J. K. Grannis; Frank Hartman; Mrs. Alice Jones; Mr. and Mrs. Kramer; Mrs. Herman Levine; David McKinney; Jimmie McRory; Mrs. Ray Millett; Wayne Morris; Tom Neblung; Mr. and Mrs. Al Sisman; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stuebing; Helen Thompson; Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Virtue; Albert Weber;

Dr. J. Lowrey Fendrich, D. D., L.L.D., dean of the Institute of Religious Science and Philosophy of Los Angeles, will give a free lecture on "How to Control Thought Processes" at 8 p. m. Monday Nov. 22, at the Woman's club. His discussion will project the non-denominational philosophy founded by Ernest Holmes thirty years ago. The public is invited to attend.

Dr. Fendrich comes here under the sponsorship of the Science of Mind Study club of Palm Springs which includes Mrs. Irene Day, Mrs. A. Lee Bradbury, Mrs. Lola Legore, Mrs. Ella Johnson, Ruth Cotter, Frances Wilson, Claudia Ray, J. P. Skarda, Hazel Nash, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Manasse, Mrs. Claude Freeman, F. Masters, C. Z. Winkler, Mrs. Billie Williamson, Eileen Anderson and Mrs. A. G. Kettman.

Dr. Fendrich plans on giving a series of lectures in Palm Springs and organizing study clubs in other communities in the desert mountain area.

Mrs. May Wells and David; Ron Wittenberg; Mrs. Elmer Wood and daughter, Jean.

Weber's GOOD IDEAS

KITCHEN TRICK

HE LIKES sausage dressing, you like sage—put 'em both in the same bird. Use one kind to stuff the turkey breast, the other the body cavity.

HOUSEHOLD HINT

HOW MUCH STUFFING? You'll need 3 cups for a roast duck; 4 cups for a 4 lb. chicken; 6 cups for an 8 lb. turkey; 10 cups for a 14 lb. turkey.

RECIPE

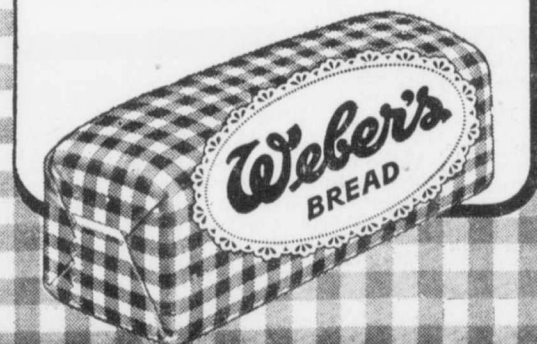

SAUSAGE BREAD STUFFING

4 qts. soft bread cubes 1 lb. sausage meat
2 c. milk 2 eggs beaten
1/4 c. chopped onion 1 tsp. salt
1/4 c. chopped celery 1/4 tsp. pepper
2 tsp. poultry seasoning

Combine bread and milk; let stand 10 mins. Brown sausage meat slightly. Combine all ingredients and mix well. Makes about 10 cups stuffing, enough for a 14 lb. turkey.

TALKING TURKEY

FOR GOOD stuffing you need good Weber's Bread...rich-tasting Weber's with virtually all the nutritional values of whole wheat. For holiday and everyday meals, use Weber's Bread.

District Session Held by Veterans At Hot Springs

Al Kime, California department commander, was the speaker of the day Sunday when posts and auxiliaries of Veterans of Foreign Wars of district two met at Desert Hot Springs Sunday.

District 2 has the highest percentage of paid up members of any in California. District Commander Keil said in his address of welcome to more than 300 delegates and veterans.

Kime discussed proposed legislation to restrict government hospitalization to veterans with service connected disabilities. Don Warner, junior department commander, was also a guest.

Mrs. Giles, Desert Hot Springs auxiliary president, introduced Ruby Stroh, department president; Opal Walters, department chief of staff; Esther Henderson, past department president; Jean Hornsels, department hospital chairman; Myrtle Koepflinger, national color bearer; and Marie Slocum, sixth district president.

Easley Gets Job As Bill Adjuster

To Supervisor James Easley of Palm Springs fell the job this week of ironing out the differences between the county hospital and the Coachella Valley

County Chapter Plans to Enliven Vets' Holiday

Christmas season for patients in the U. S. Navy hospital at Corona and the March Air Force base hospital will be brightened again this year by a holiday program now being planned on a county-wide basis by the American Red Cross.

Riverside county chapter is coordinating contributions of volunteer time, gift materials and special products which each Christmas flow to this area from nearby chapters and cities as far west as Arcadia. County ARC branches are planning to take part.

Throughout the Christmas week ward parties and many special entertainments will be staged. Red Cross will install Christmas trees and decorations and even provide a number of genuine Santa Clauses, complete with beards and toy sacks.

Mrs. H. B. Stevens of Riverside is coordinating chairman for Christmas activities at both hospitals.

Farmers association. According to the hospital, the association refuses to pay for treatment given Mexican farm laborers. The bill was reported as "several hundred dollars."

Easley was delegated to bring the association and hospital together to seek a solution of the problem.

National Realty Session Stresses Greater Service

Several thousand realtors from all parts of the country will gather in New York for the 41st annual convention of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, which started Monday and will be concluded tomorrow. Hobart C. Brady of Wichita, president, will preside.

California, with almost 25% of the NAREB membership, was represented at the convention by a large delegation. Mrs. Marie Belyea of Palm Springs attended the sessions. Prominent speakers such as James A. Farley, former Postmaster General and William Craven-Ellis, well-known British home-builder and a former member of Parliament, addressed various sessions. Panel discussions developed the latest market outlook in housing. Policy of the organization on such vital issues as rent control, public housing, socialization of the industry and war housing will be considered. New officers were discussed.

"Opportunities for Greater Service" is the convention theme which is being stressed throughout, with experts in the various specialized fields of real estate sharing their experience with the others in attendance.

Realtors Launch Education Drive

Realtors in California are planning an enlarged educational program during 1949, according to Leland P. Reeder, Beverly Hills, chairman of the committee on education for both the California Real Estate Association and National Association of Real Estate Boards. He made the announcement this week in commenting upon the recent appointment of H. Jackson Pontius, secretary of the Pasadena Realty board, as director of education of CREA.

"We expect to emphasize during next year a three-point program for extending better educational facilities to realtors and to young people seeking professional training in the field of real estate," Reeder said.

H. F. Lord, of Stoughton, Mass., was left with the double task of being both father and mother to his two little sons. He says his boys were the usual run of the mill boys, pretty good as boys go. He had a housekeeper to look after them during the day, but after dinner in the evening, he took over.

Olman's Agency Joins Network to Aid Reservations

In line with the chamber of commerce's efforts and advertising to create good will among the travel agents, George Olman announces his travel agency and a group of authorized travel agents, are cooperating as a network of teletype reservation clearing offices for the purpose of promoting hotel reservations in Palm Springs through the authorized travel agent.

The purpose of the network is to facilitate movement to this area by simplifying the ways and means of securing suitable accommodations for the prospective guests. This means that there will be a Palm Springs central clearing point in all principal cities on the entire Pacific coast, throughout the southwest, and in the near future, they will be joined by agents in Chicago, New York and Florida.

This will be operated on the basis of the standard commission paid to travel agents.

Millions of Americans have discovered a convenient, automatic cushion against financial setbacks. That cushion is U. S. Savings Bonds. Buy them the convenient way—through the Payroll Savings Plan.

Annual report of the California Electric Power company which serves the Palm Springs area in its southwestern network, reveals steady growth in service and an increase in earnings, according to a letter to stockholders.

Earnings on common stock for the year ending Sept. 30, 1948, were 76 cents per share, 3 cents higher than the previous year.

Calelectric was granted an increase in rates, effective August 1, by the state utilities commission this year.

This and the steadily increasing demand for power is credited by the company with the gains.

A Desert Home With Personality

An authentic California ranch house constructed of hollow tile with double Spanish tile roof. Just the right size: 2 bedrooms, 2 baths, plus guest house and 2 car garage. All the details you admire—there is a long low living room with fireplace, wall to wall carpeting and complete and appropriate furnishings. There's a shady walled patio complete with barbecue. We think the lot is wonderful—it's large, it's walled, it's landscaped beautifully with full grown trees and shrubs, it borders Las Palmas and it's zoned R-3. This fine residence with income potentialities is presented by us exclusively at $27,500.00. It won't last so make an appointment to see it—TODAY!

what hidden talents were brought to light in these unassuming, care-free trailerists. So much to admire, so much to learn and what a chatty sociable time it was, looking at and admiring other people's hobbies. Punch and cookies were served by the committee. Much thanks is due Harriet Wright and her helpers in putting on this excellent show.

The Lynn Gollehurs and the A. G. Graves have settled down here now for the season, coming from San Diego. Cap and Mrs. Hollingsworth are here in a snappy new Spartan. Lt. and Mrs. Del Cecil are back in their old spot. Miss Dottie Higgins is a new trailerist and comes to us from Los Angeles. She has a big shiny new trailer and is very happy in it. Mrs. Dorothy Martin of Paradise Cove is settled here for the season and from the same park come the Goodens. The Les Haslams arrived this week in a large new trailer from Long Beach. The Carl Cosses are expected any day.

On Parole Charge

Joseph W. Tobo, arrested on a charge of being intoxicated was turned over to authorities of the Patton State Hospital as a parole violator.

Says His Girl Friend is Too Demonstrative

J. C. Lilley, negro who resides on the Indian reservation, sought police protection this week from violent indications of affection by his best girl friend.

"I'd like to get your help in trying to stop my girl friend from throwing rocks at me and when she can't hit me from breaking the windows in my automobile," Lilley was asked to sign a complaint but so far has failed to do so.

"Love never did run smooth," philosophized Police Sergeant Orest Johnson. "At least, that's what I've been told."

Says Arson Charge Is Just Revenge

George David Burt, taken into custody by Palm Springs police Friday, was returned to Phoenix, Arizona, Wednesday where he will face a charge of arson. "It's a bum rap," declared Burt before leaving Palm Springs. "My wife and I had a little trouble and this is her way of getting even with me."

Tramview Review

Last Friday evening, Tramview Trailer park, under the new ownership of Glenn and Katherine Woodbury, held its opening dance of the season in the newly redecorated recreation hall. The dance, which was attended by many members of other parks in this area, was a huge success, and was one of the highlights in the social program for Tramview Village. The orchestra of five pieces, which supplied some of the finest music heard in this section, was under the direction of Ben Massey of Palm Springs Trailer Village. The square dances and Virginia Reel were called by George Van Loon of Ramon Park. During the intermission, coffee and doughnuts were served.

Saturday evening, the Woodburys hosted another of their regular week-end parties for the members of Tramview Village and their guests. This function which is a regular feature, consists of bingo, cards, dancing and shuffleboard. Refreshments, which are varied each week, are served in the middle of the evening. Instead of the weekly dances which were held in the past, these informal parties have been inaugurated, with an occasional dance for special holiday functions. This year, admission to all social activities is by guest card only, which can be obtained from any park member.

SEVERAL OF THE MEN in the park are starting to lay forms for the new roque court which is to be just east of the recreation building. When completed, this will supply another form of daytime activity for the park guests. Then they will undertake the work of pouring the cement for the outdoor shuffleboard courts, which will lay alongside the hall. This new recreation area, which eventually will be equipped with picnic facilities, will be lighted for evening enjoyment. At present, shuffleboard courts have been made on the dance floor.

Most of the business establishments on the highway have opened for the season and are ready to serve the people in the valley. Among these are Shirley's Beauty Corral, Lucke Trailer Sales, Henry's Market, Sunear Sports Shop, Log House Antiques, Monticito Cafe, Vic's Furniture Store, San Juanita Lodge, B. and M. Welding Co., Raymond's Fruit and Date Shop and others. Tramview has a complete shopping center of which we are all proud. This is a great pleasure to the trailerists, who have the benefit of these services so close at hand.

IT IS INTERESTING to note the various ways the guests have beautified their lots. With some, the trend is toward a desert plot containing various cacti and rock formations. Others reflect their artistic talents with pretty gardens and lawns, and some with the farm in their blood have small vegetable gardens. This improvement program is helping to make Tramview one of the nicest parks in this area. We are happy to see so many taking an interest in their own lots and in the park as a whole.

President' Breakfast Opens Woman's Club Year

President's breakfast of the Woman's club opened the season at the Peterson Cove ranch last Wednesday morning when seventy ladies were served bacon and pancakes out of doors. Honored guests of the occasion were Mrs. Emma McMickle, founder of the club who came from Inglewood for the occasion, Mrs. Lucy Abels from San Diego, the only president serving three successive years, and the resident past presidents Mrs. Edna Laas, Mrs.

Blanche Zinn and Mrs. Bessie Kelley. Mrs. McMickle gave the California federation president's convention prayer which is printed in the front of the state yearbook and Mrs. Mary Wolseth read her message to this year's membership which appears in the new year book received on Tuesday by every club member. Johnny Boyle, well known entertainer, sang cowboy songs throughout the breakfast.

This was the program of music provided by Edna Cobb, who with her committee, cooked and served the breakfast. The business meeting was brief and consisted of reports by committee chairmen starting with Mrs. Lola Sherrill who gave an instructive outline of the structure of federation with the part the club can play. Mrs. Lucy Abels gave her report of the two days she spent at the convention of the southern district held at Colorado early in November when she attended in the capacity of the president's alternate. Mrs. Doris Sprague, ways and means chairman, told of plans for the Christmas fair and asked for volunteers to help at the booths and with work at home, the making of marmalade, candy and stuffing dummies and in the collection of rummage.

Mr. and Mrs. Wally Kenny, who are part time residents at Desert Cove Ranch and South Pasadena, welcomed a son, Ray Wallace, born Oct. 28.

Block Hostesses Start Campaign

Fourteen members of the Woman's club who have volunteered to act as block hostesses, meet this afternoon at 3 p. m. in the studio at Desert Lodge. Mrs. Agnes Wilbor, chairman, and Mrs. Mary Wolseth, club president, will give them material to help the community to a better understanding of what makes the clubs tick, what a sanitation district is and how they can act as a center for friendship and helpfulness in the town. Mrs. Wilbor said that she expects to hold these meetings once a month and keep every area in town informed on what is going on.

Annual Fireman's Ball Scheduled Tomorrow Night

Tomorrow is the fireman's annual ball at the Deluxe Trailer Park recreation hall. The motif is Western and the fun will be high, wide and handsome. Whether you go to the ball or not, residents have been asked to buy $1 tickets in order to help the firemen procure a truck on which to carry their equipment, such as first aid and resuscitation tanks. A queen of the firemen will be chosen, and Larry Weingartner says he will be a happy man when the final choice has been made because as fire chief he has come in for a lot of kidding. Special entertainment, music, refreshments and a good time for everybody will be the watchwords of the evening.

Cathedral City Church to Stage Sale on Tuesday

The Thanksgiving food and opportunity sale, sponsored by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Cathedral City Community church, will be held in Jones' Date Shop on Broadway, Tuesday, Nov. 23, from 10 to 2. This will be your chance to purchase such things as cakes, pies, baked dishes, children's clothes, gift and Christmas cards and whatever you might find at the White Elephant table. The proceeds of the sale will be used to help with the work needed in the completion of the church building.

Coordinating Council is Organized at Cathedral

Leslie Kelley, president of the Lions club, feeling the need of co-ordinating council, called a meeting of the heads of the various organizations, and trailer parks with recreation halls, at the studio at Desert Lodge, last Monday night.

Rev. Jack Wartes served as secretary, and a calendar of events was drawn up month by month. Paul Clark represented L. C. Lewis for the chamber of commerce, Mary Wolseth, the Women's club, Marguerite Hillery the library, Larry Weingartner the fire hall, Father Leissler the Catholic church, Glenn Woodbury represented the Tramview drive-in park. It was voted to perpetuate this committee under either the Lions' club or the chamber of commerce, stating that it should meet at the beginning and end of each season. Rev. Wartes is to send each member a complete calendar of events as have been planned so far.

Arrowhead Club Is Entertained

The Arrowhead Woman's club was entertained to an informal luncheon at the Ellinger home, opposite the Wonder Date Palm Hotel on Wednesday, Nov. 17. Over sixty ladies were guests of Mrs. Meta Ellinger who is one of the Arrowhead leading clubwomen where she still has a summer home. Mrs. Ellinger's chief interest lay in the formation and guiding of the Junior club of which she was the much loved sponsor. Mrs. Mary Wolseth in her capacity of president of the local club attended the meeting as a guest of Mrs. Ellinger. Lloyd Mason Smith, director of the Desert Museum for the past few years, spoke on Desert Flora and formations, the view from the Ellinger home giving additional pleasure and point to his remarks.

Help Asked for Christmas Sale

"Clean out your garages! Go through your closets and bureau drawers! We'll take what you have just so as it's clear," came the request from the Block Hostesses who start next week to collect for the Christmas fair and rummage sale. "And don't forget that next Tuesday at Jones Store next the barber shop in the Linkletter building you can buy your Thanksgiving goodies the day ahead when the Community Church Ladies Auxiliary hold their bake sale. They too are asking for nicknacks and handwork to sell for the benefit of their church," was the reminder.

Seiz I---

By MARY WOLSETH

"Why do you say that Sunair will eventually be part of Cathedral City or Cathedral City a part of Sunair, and who do you think that what helps one also helps the other?" I have been asked.

In the first place the entire area is unincorporated Riverside County on the alluvial fan of Cathedral Canyon, they join each other without even a block between. The two subdivisions along with the Indian land east of town lie within the same flood control channels. Sunair is just as much a part of the whole as is this Indian Land which can never be owned by the businesses who lease from the Indian office. In the second place any subdivision in the county, before it goes on the market has to have its own name and legally define its borders before it can be put on the market.

Cathedral City, "Cathedral Highlands" and "Sunair" each has its own areas defined and just as Palm Desert could not call itself Palm Village even if it wanted to do so. They too must go under their own names. When the time comes to incorporate those areas then it will rest with the people who have bought the land whether it will be called Palm Village, Palm Desert, Rancho Mirage or what have you. That is just as true here. After the subdividers sell the majority of the land and the time comes to become a separate entity it will be up to the people.

Now I say that no beautiful subdivision is enhanced by having an adjoining district made into a backwash of empty stores and failing businesses and it is to the advantage of both the Cathedral Highlands Development company and the Sunair Development companies to do all they can to improve the appearance and prosperity of the existing business and residential section in order to make their new projects more attractive to prospective buyers. These two companies paid their share in the flood control project but had it not been for the demand of the many resident property owners through their active chamber of commerce (who are still shouldering $2000 of the prorated debt of the property owners at large) they would have had no subdivisions today. Mr. Walter Melrose has shown his appreciation of this by giving the chamber of commerce an option at a nominal sum on the land on which their firehall stands. He also has agreed to give them two acres of land which will be available to both tracts, and not just Sunair, as a recreation park. That being what many court owners feel is one of the most badly needed possessions of a resort area.

And lastly, I think that any fine beautiful building which can be built on the Sunair Tract will bring property into the present business area of the Cathedral City especially if it were a bank because all the unincorporated tracts east of town would have to pass through from the east end, and what is more natural than to pull up and buy something?

Where you get increased traffic you get increased trade, sez I. It cost 251 million dollars for maintenance of the entire Navy in 1935; in the Navy's food bill alone was over 670 million.

Instructive Talk Given Lions at Dinner Meeting

Lion's Club meeting was well attended at the Totem pole cafe and they were instructed in the set up and work of the United Nations by Dr. Arthur Huff, acting superintendent of the Palm Springs school district.

The work of the various committees was shown to be successful in the functioning of committees. This illustrated the point often lost sight of that the United Nations was not formed to make the peace but to preserve and enforce it.

Lt. Lawrence McConnell of Los Angeles, chairman of the penal commission of the American Legion, gave an account of his work in rendering aid to ex-convicts and their families who have come into conflict with the law due to physical and mental disabilities. McConnell has been able to give much help in consoling service.

Willard Price Honored at Tea

Over a hundred tea guests were entertained last Sunday afternoon by Miss Virginia Colville, owner of the Palm Springs Book Shop when she honored the local author, Willard Price whose new travel book "Roving South" has just come off the press.

Quite a few of the same people met again in the evening when Mrs. F. Mack Moore entertained for Mrs. James De Force of Pasadena. Mrs. De Force will occupy the Moore home at Glenn and D Street while Mary and Mack are in Westwood. Mack is taking a refresher course as a background for his work with the county health department.

Lewis Attends Coachella Event

Cathedral chamber of commerce was honored by the inclusion of its president L. C. Lewis in an invitation to attend a barbecued dinner at the Coachella Valley Farm Bureau and Water Company in the town of Coachella Monday evening. The committee of agriculture in the house of representatives consisting of fourteen members and their wives, have been making a tour of the United States farm areas and have been entertained wherever they have gone. Imperial and Coachella Valleys caused them to open their eyes in wonder at what had been and is being accomplished.

New Housing Protests Low

Compared with the vast volume of postwar housing production, the number of complaints received by the U.S. Housing Expediter is negligible, examination of official reports indicates, the National Association of Home Builders says. Less than 2% of all new houses were subject of complaints deemed acceptable by the expeditor, government figures show. Of this small percentage reported, NAHB points out, only 1.10th of 1% of the total reached the stage of settlement, pending settlement, referred to litigation or investigation completed.

Forest Smokers Target of Drive

Supervisors Monday promised Supervisor W. V. Pittman's request for a new county ordinance to prevent smoking in forests in the county area by ordering more rigid enforcement of the existing measure.

The county law now prohibits smoking in forest areas between May 1 and December 30 anywhere except in approved camp grounds.

County Fire Marshal Truman Holland was asked to post signs and hear down on all violators of the measure.

Villager Succumbs Suddenly at Home

Milanio F. Roseta, 54, died in his home at 228 South Santa Rosa Tuesday at 12:30 p. m. Dr. James Potter who answered the call of neighbors reported that Roseta was dead at the time of his arrival. The county coroner was notified and an autopsy is expected to be held to determine the cause of death.

PALM VALLEY

With DON CAMERON

Saturday evening at the recreation hall in Deluxe Trailer Park, in Cathedral City, the annual fireman's western ball comes off. Chairman Al Sprague tells me he has two square dance teams from Rancho Trailer Park as well as the popular group from Los Compadres in a competitive match. The band to be the Desert Music Makers and plenty of door prizes.

On Monday, the 22nd, the Amvets invites the public to its annual installation of officers at the Palm House. If you care to come to a sparerib dinner, get a ticket from one of the boys along the street. Charley Doyle, popular Tampico operator and Rancho Mirage property owner, took off for Chicago this week. Object, to present his parents with a new Chrysler Town & Country and with them, drive back in bringing his 90-year-old grandmother. Extensive grading operations on Charley's lot by the Harles Bros. looks as though Charley and the family are planning on getting their desert home started.

Dr. Frank Stockton of Rancho Mirage, associated last season with Dr. Joseph A. D'Alessio of Beverly Hills, announced the opening of his new dental offices on Grove street in Cathedral City. In conjunction with this, he is establishing a nutritional food center, specializing in natural foods and whole grain sugar.

AT WONDER PALMS, Esther McGee, aided by her sister, Edith Window, gave a dinner last Wednesday for their mother, Mrs. Emma Wilson's 90th birthday. Those fine Mexican friends of mine the Three Caballeros, are packing 'em in for dancing every night.

Dave Culver's father, R. J. (better known as the Commodore) Culver and his mother have been here for two weeks. He's still got that 1934 Packard convertible, says "It's better than any of the new models complete with new parts from stem to stern." A sad note was cast this past weekend with the news of the death in Long Beach Community hospital of Thelma, wife of Admiral Charles Weitzel.

TO ACQUAINT the old timers with some of the new renters, here's a partial list. In Karena Shields' house, the Howard Reynolds, at Mel O'Reilly's, the R. V. Loyds, he's the general contractor on the two-year job putting the laterals on the All American Canal. At Lee Day's, the Drink Santa Ana. At Frank Morgan's, the Jack Hoffmans of San Francisco. Sigrid Norde Gallagher leased one of her houses to the William McCormicks of San Mateo. The Jack Petras of Montecito are in one of Jim Smith's apartments and the Barry Frosts in one of Jack Swetland's places. He is the Indian Pontiac dealer. In the Whitney Dunning house, Miss Mary Huntington with Ann and brother, Jack Burns.

Moving to a new location in Rancho Mirage this week from his spot near the Peterson ranch, Bob Brady, the popular fireplace and flagstone man with his Desert Rock Quarry.

Any day about 4, Conky the great "Conkwright" dashes in to be sure to listen to his broadcast on KLEO, radio, at 5 o'clock. Then about 5:20 he dashes back again, guns and all and "How did we like it?" Should I tell him?

100 Houses Near Village Go on Block

Capital Company
Purchases Homes
For Over $1,000,000

One hundred homes, constructed by Nelson Construction Company immediately east of the Village on Ramon road, were sold at a trustee's sale on the steps of the Riverside county court house at 10 a. m. Tuesday for a sum reported in excess of $1,500,000. The successful bidder was the Capital Company of California, a subsidiary of Transamerica corporation.

TRUST DEEDS to the entire project were held by Allied Building Credits, Incorporated, also a subsidiary of Transamerica corporation. It was these deeds which were sold.

Willard Geib, local realtor, has been acting as receiver for the property under appointment by Judge O. K. Morton of superior court. He is still in control of the property until formal transfer is made by Allied Credits, Incorporated, to the Capital Company of California.

IT WAS the Allied company who financed the construction of the 100 homes in the Fall of 1946. An intensive sales campaign to dispose of the homes is expected to be launched here within the next 60 to 90 days. The sale program will be introduced to realtors in the Village during a special banquet to be arranged by the new owners of the properties.

Supervisors

Decide to Buy

After weeks of study, county supervisors this week voted to buy the church building at Tenth and Line streets in the county seat, to provide room for additional county offices.

The county bought the land some time ago but debated the purchase of the buildings on the property until this week.

Officers of the county health department will probably be moved to the structure when it is remodeled.

Noted Detective Describes Famous Cases at Club Rally

Raymond Schindler, one of the world's most famous detectives gave the Woman's club of Palm Springs a most enjoyable afternoon when he appeared before the group Monday afternoon at a regular meeting.

Schindler, in physical appearance somewhat different than the proverbial "thin man" nevertheless recounted thrilling experiences quite up to the standard of those witnessed on the current screen.

HIS EXPERIENCES have been most varied and have included search for heirs of unclaimed fortunes, the protection of leading stars of the motion picture industry, key work in murders of international interest, the recovery of the German crown jewels and the philanthropic work he is doing at present as a hobby. He is engaged in the latter with Eric Stanley Gardner the creator of Perry Mason and other fictional characters well known to all readers of mystery stories.

Schindler and Gardner are working together in securing additional evidence to bring about the release of persons unjustly accused and convicted. Only recently they were able to prevent a miscarriage of justice by uncovering new evidence which brought about the stay of execution in the gas chamber of a man not guilty of the crime of which he had been convicted.

OF SPECIAL INTEREST were the unknown facts about his work in the Sir Harry Oaks murder of a few years ago. Schindler revealed that after he had been successful in uncovering evidence to prove the innocence of Alfred de Marigny of murdering his father-in-law he was anxious to follow-through in apprehending the real criminal. Several of his "leads" were so exciting to him personally that it was with regret that he had to abandon his work because of the insistence from the officials in the Bahamas that he do so.

Schindler brought a laugh to his audience when he related that his first trip to California was brought about because of his wish to investigate some gold mining stock he had purchased in the early 1900s. He admitted that this bit of detective work did not take much time.

The program for the next meeting of the club will be announced at a later date.

DOUBLE CELEBRATION—Constable and Mrs. Fred Duffey were celebrating their silver wedding anniversary the other night when Mr. and Mrs. Ray Chamberlain (couple at left) came in. They were on their honeymoon, married that day. It was only natural that the two couples become acquainted and celebrated together, one, one day, the other, 25 years. It all happened at Dave Lyons Saddle and Sirlon.

Celebrate Two Anniversaries

Shirley Buchanan, in private life, Mrs. George Ferraro, celebrated her birthday and with her husband, their wedding anniversary Friday evening at the Nooks where they are residing while in the Village.

Taking advantage of the two-fold occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Wright, Morrie Avery and wife Ruth Jones Avery, manager of the Nooks, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Harlig, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Leonard and Max Shagrin, well known Hollywood agent, vacationing for two weeks at the Nooks.

Newsboys were first used in America in 1761.

Season Gets Under Way at Palm Desert

Follow the leader is the practice followed by society, celebrities famed fliers and columnists, all trekking out to the new and beautiful Shadow Mountain Club, making Firecliff Lodge their headquarters over the weekend.

Among the many enjoying the club were a number of Palm Desert's directors who spent the week-end at Firecliff. They were Mr. and Mrs. Justin Dart, head of Rexall stores and written up in Life last season, Mr. and Mrs. Alden Roach, Consolidated Steel, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Birley, Mr. and Mrs. William Stewart, Union Oil, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Firestone and Lockheeds top executive, Carl Squire.

Palm Springs number one bridal couple of the week Mr. and Mrs. John Coulton (Nancy Jaynes) made Firecliff the number one stop on their honeymoon. Photographer, Floyd Freil of the Hollywood Citizen, was there shooting pictures of the club for the Citizen, also famous war flier, Colonel Frank Kurtz who flew down to visit with Frank Birley, and Brandy Brent and actor Turhan Bey looking over the interesting features in and around the club, Sonny Burke, orchestra leader with William McWethy and S. H. Dolly, Mr. and Mrs. William Jason of San Francisco with Frank Bogert and Berney Hinkle, Who's Who Clarence Wolley, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bergen, Edgar's brother, Villagers Dr. and Mrs. Henry Dollard with the Louis Nelson's of St. Louis Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Straw and J. G. Skidmore of Lake Forest, Illinois.

Card Parties Start Tuesday

Tuesday at 8:00 p. m., the social season at St. Louis Catholic Church in Cathedral City, will open with a huge card party. The new hall on B off Glenn Street will be used for the first time for a parish affair. People from as far away as Indio are expected to swell the crowd to 500.

The advance sale of tickets indicates that the party will be a gala affair. However, admission may be paid at the door the evening of the party. Refreshments will be available.

Catholics and non-catholics alike are rejoicing that with the inaugural of this party there will be games every Tuesday. The opinion has been voiced that there has been a lack of amusement in the district so far this year. With these parties, people will have a definite date each week in which to enjoy themselves, said the Rev. Fr. Joseph Leissler, pastor.

Art on Wheels At Tennis Club

"Art on Wheels" will be brought to the "Lanal Room" of the Tennis Club in Palm Springs for a showing of the works of young modern painters tomorrow continuing until December 4.

The works of art, brought for their first exhibition in California by Mrs. Eulalia C. Emetaz, of "La Galeria Escondida Contemporary Art," Taos, New Mexico, were carefully packed in a large green station wagon. The paintings, by twenty youthful exhibitors, were first driven to the "Desert Inn," Tucson, Arizona, for a showing, then to "Rancho del a Osa," also in Arizona; hence the label "Art on Wheels." The "Art on Wheels" showing, first of a series to be presented at the Tennis Club by contemporary artists, is a follow-up to last week's first sidewalk Greenwich Village type art exhibit.

Food requirements of the Navy in 1941 were 1,000,000,000 (B) pounds; in 1945 they had risen to 5,700,000,000 (B) pounds.

Prominent in the Life of the Village

Mr. and Mrs. James (Jimmy) Hume and their daughter, Sharon Lynn, age 8, are shown, upper left. Mr. Hume confines his time to taking care of real estate holdings in Los Angeles. He is a Mason, a member of the Elks, Horsemen's association, Desert Riders and both are members of the Los Compadres. Mrs. Hume was the founder and first president of the Business Women's Club, a charter member of the Sororistomist Club, a member of the Women's Club and also an officer of Coachella Valley Order of the Eastern Star. Sharon is a Brownie in Troup 13.

Upper right, are Mr. and Mrs. James C. Geggie. He is resident manager of the Desert Inn, having been with the famed hotel for the past 20 years. Mrs. Geggie is president of the Women's Club and directs the Club Chorus. For many years, she has been responsible for bringing Chamber music and concert series to the Village. This past summer, they vacationed in Carmel during the month of July.

In the center, are Jo and Eddie Kaminski of Los Angeles, who are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Scott Spine. Both Mr. and Mrs. Kaminski are artists, he being the former head of the art department of Pomona College and at present an art instructor in Los Angeles. He has exhibited his work in European Art galleries and Mrs. Kaminski is a well known mural painter, one of her most recent murals being in the Beverly Wilshire hotel.

Lower left are Dr. and Mrs. Joseph A. D'Alessio of Beverly Hills and Palm Springs, who occupy the deluxe suite of the Canyon View apartments in the Seeburg Building. Dr. Alessio is a prominent physician of Beverly Hills and Palm Springs, just now completing his new suites in Beverly Hills. He is planning to return full time to Palm Springs as soon as his affairs are in order there.

Lower right are the Stanley Rosin's, owners of the El Encanto apartment hotel and Tahquitz Vista. On the left is Jo Ann, age 6, and Barbara Jean, 10, and in the center, is Sandy. Mr. Rosin is president of the Jewish Community Center of Palm Springs, active in the chamber of commerce, director of the Desert Museum, and is also a Mason. Mrs. Rosin is public relations chairman of Palm Springs Community hospital and Community Service chairman of the Jewish Women's Group. Both girls are Girl Scouts. Mr. Rosin operates a hotel at Catalina during the summer months.

Lasky and Guests Relax at Pueblo

Jesse Lasky, noted film producer with J. Emanuel and Al Melnick of Hollywood, spent several days at the Pueblo.

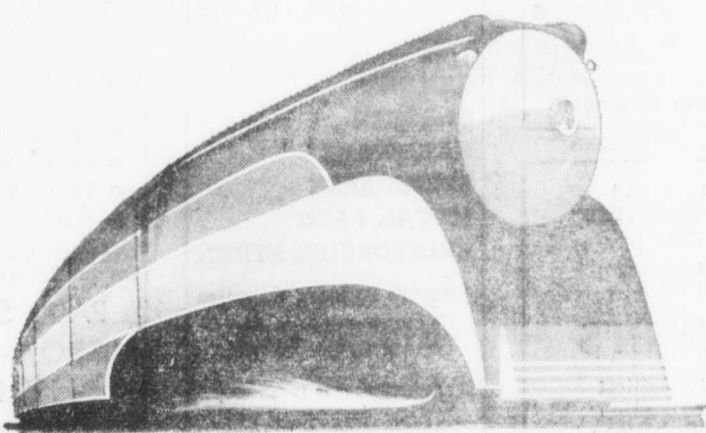

Other recent guests included Olin Dutra, golf champion and his wife; Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Yoder of Carson City; Mr. and Mrs. Fred F. Kelly and Mr. and Mrs. Allan Katz of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Carney from Los Angeles, were in the Village over the week-end visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard McLaughlin.

The Ramada of the Desert Inn was the scene of a gay picnic Monday with Johnny Boyle, as cowboy host and entertainer. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Tappan and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Horton from Santa Ana, Mrs. Joe Crail of Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Smith of Piedmont.

Jules and Webb opened officially Sunday evening as a featured act with the Vellones at the Palm House. Jules and Webb, well known around the Village, played the Bombay last season and have just finished a successful engagement at Lake Arrowhead.

It Was Truly Colossal, That Show at the Racquet Club

If it is possible to satisfy the curiosity of a rabid movie fan, it could very well have happened this week in Palm Springs.

As usual, the Racquet Club was the locale most of them fraternized and those motion picture producers who witnessed the impromptu performance staged there on Saturday night must have returned to Hollywood with the feeling that "he had seen everything."

Under the personal coercion of Lou Holtz, famed stage comedian, the show was one any producer would have paid a cool million to star in one "stupendous, super-colossal" picture, to borrow some of Hollywood's superlatives.

On to an impromptu stage walked Gloria de Haven, the three Ritz brothers, Jimmy Van Housen, song writer, Mark Warner, musical director, Van Heflin, Dorothy Lamour, Jesse Lasky and many others and even Charley Farrell, who, no doubt, gave a revival of "Seventh Heaven."

Some of the following who witnessed the show and staying at the Racquet Club were Mark Stevens, Irwin Florshiem, Percy and Chuck Hendelshon, Eddie Silverman, Mr. and Mrs. William Perlberg, William Howard, husband of Miss Lamour, Bruce Humberstone, director-producer, Edward Small, host to ex-Mayor Ed Kelley of Chicago and his wife.

Ray Schindler and Sam Briskin were there too, as were Bill Horstien, Kenny Schmidt, Sterling Edwards, Robert Anderson, Freddy Kolmar, writer-producer, Arthur Unger, west coast editor of Variety, Paul Blumental, Arthur Morris and others.

Villagers there were Milt Hocks, Barney Hinkle and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. Sol Lesser, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kirk and others.

Before closing time the group who participated in the show visited the Chi Chi where they enjoyed the performance of Don Corey, the Three Bachelors and Jacqueline Fontaine before calling it a night.

Mark Warnow, of Hit Parade fame, resting and sunning at the Nook's for a few days, chatting with Milton Stein of Columbia Pictures.

Harvest Festival
Theme Sunday at
St. Paul's Church

The Sunday before Thanksgiving Day is always the Harvest Festival in the Parish of St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal, because the Rev. Robert Hogarth, rector, feels that in these days of preponderant urban life people are inclined to forget that the elemental gifts of God in food and clothing come first, and to give Him thanks for them. The Rector will preach at the Family Hour and the late morning service on "Casting Bread Upon the Waters."

The monthly Holy Eucharist will be celebrated at the Family Hour, 9:45, and all confirmed children in the Sunday School will remain throughout the service. Parents and other adults also welcome to make their communions at this earlier hour.

The special Thanksgiving Day service on Thursday will begin at 10:00 a. m. and will last not later than one hour. The sermon theme will be "The Permanency of the Peace of God." Yes, we can thank God even in these days of unsettlement and political uncertainty.

All children in the parish, and grown-ups too, are invited to bring a gift of the Fruits of the Field, staple food articles that will keep indefinitely, preferably in cans, to supply the larder of the Episcopal Home for Children in Pasadena.

"Bring them on Sunday, so the box can be despatched before Thanksgiving Day," Rev. Hogarth said.

The storage and administrative center at the Naval Supply Depot, Norfolk, Va., with over 1,000,000 square feet of floor space is one of the world's largest storehouses.

Christian Science Theme
'Soul and Body'

"Rejoice the soul of thy servant: for unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul." This quotation from the Psalms will be the Golden Text of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Soul and Body" in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston.

In his Sermon on the Mount as recorded by Matthew, Jesus asserts, "The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light. But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness." John declares in his first epistle, "Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is."

In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy writes, "The denial of material selfhood aids the discernment of man's spiritual and eternal individuality, and destroys the erroneous knowledge gained from matter or through what are termed the material senses."

Fourth in Series
At Community
Church Sunday

At the 11 a. m. service at Community Church, the Rev. James H. Blackstone Jr., pastor, will preach the fourth of a series of sermons on, "Christ's Message To His Church." These sermons are based on the seven letters which are found in the opening chapters of the Book of Revelations.

The Chancel choir will render special music. A nursery is conducted during the service for small children. The Young Peoples meeting is held at 6:15 in the church parlor all young people of junior high and high school age are urged to attend. In the evening service at 7:30 p. m., Rev. Blackstone Jr., will bring the message. Two junior choirs, the Junior Choristers and the Blue Nightingales, will be present to render special music. Dr. Harry Rimmer, who was announced as the speaker at this service in unable to be here on account of the serious illness of his daughter, stricken with polio this week. He will come to Palm Springs at a later date.

Moving Picture Projector Bought By High School

Palm Springs high school has just purchased a New Bell and Howell single unit 16mm moving picture projector to replace the old Victoria model which the school has been using for the past 11 years. The Bell and Howell is equipped with 2 lenses a 2 inch lens for classroom use, and a 3 inch for use in the auditorium.

The speaker unit and amplifier, which has a 10 watt output, is conveniently built into the projector box.

John Weeks, world history and tennis teacher, and who is also head of the radio-visual dept. is very pleased with his working staff, all of whom are able to operate the new projector.

They are, Don DuBose, Rollin Jones, Bob Knapp, Jack Wilcox, and Arthur Laidlow.

Also recently purchased by the Radio-Visual dept. is a new headed screen, which measuring 37 inch and 50 inch will be reserved primarily for class room use.

Said Mr. Weeks, "although the Bell and Howell is one of the best and most expensive of projectors, because of its compact construction, it is among the easiest to operate."

Freshmen Elect, Plan Active Year

Following the election of freshman officers the main class projects are the electing of a freshman king and queen, and selecting booth concessions for the annual G.A.A. carnival.

Headed by Kieth Sanders, the freshman are also planning a radio broadcast to be presented the latter part of December.

Marlene Knower Tribe's Choice

Marlene Knower was elected as the Tribes' candidate for G.A.A. carnival queen at their second monthly meeting last Tuesday. A committee was chosen to plan and work on a concession to operate during the carnival on December 3. The remaining part of the meeting feature of boxing and wrestling between various students. Next month the Tribes plans to show sports movies and engage a speaker for the program, according to Chuck Blackhart, Big Chief.

The Tribes is an organization of all boys in Palm Springs high school.

Bob Anderson King Candidate

Bob Anderson was selected as Girls League king candidate for the G.A.A. carnival, to be held December 3rd, to the Girls League meeting last Tuesday night at Palm Springs high school.

Plans for malt sales at noon were made, and a discussion of plans for Christmas baskets for the needy of Palm Springs, also took place. Vicki Matloff, president, presided at the meeting.

Chia Sales Slow To Date, Report

How about it kids, are we going to have an annual this year? Well we're not if you don't start ordering them now.

On Friday November 11, we had sold exactly 100 annuals and had 200 more to go. The annuals are on sale every noon period in front of room 2, so let's all bring that $2.00 and subscribe to this year's Chia, the best one ever!

Do you realize that the future holds for you what you hold for the future? Make your future secure by buying U. S. Savings Bonds regularly on the Payroll Savings Plan.

Class Sweaters Ordered Today By Senior Class

For the first time in a number of years the senior class of Palm Springs high school has put in an order for class sweaters.

They are to be in one of two different styles, either slip-overs or Cardigan coat sweaters. The color decided on is pearl gray and the senior students voted on an emblem Tuesday, Nov. 9 when their measurements were taken. A final vote on the color for their emblem will be taken soon. At the moment the controversy deals with whether this class emblem shall be red or maroon.

Mr. Malone, representative from the sweater company, told the seniors to expect delivery within a month and a half or two months.

Armistice Day Offers Holiday

November 11 was a great day for the Palm Springs high school students because they were given a holiday in order to observe Armistice Day.

Armistice Day is legally celebrated in memory of the ending of the first world war.

Marryin' Sam Cleans Up During Sadie Hawkins Day

By BOB BREEN

Snare traps, grass covered holes all over the campus and lassoes were uncovered around Palm Springs high school, Friday, November 12.

Sadie Hawkins' Day Race is held annually at noon on the campus. Several locals, namely Luke, Sales, Inman and Wilson were caught by Smith, Warren, Watlet and Connell respectively, caught in beautiful tackles that made Coach Clare Ballagh's eyes turn green.

During the race there were a couple of boys, Hairless Joe and Injun Polecat, that had to stop for a quick drink of kick-apoo joy juice. They made the swimming pool from the hole. The new gym was really initiated with The Daisy Maes' and Lil Abners' running up one side and running down the other of the quonset like building.

Boys that couldn't afford the $1.25 haircut were dragged off by the hair down Palm Canyon drive and up Ramon road to the high school on Saturday night 'round nine to the Sadie Hawkins' Dance. Ropes dangling from the rafters were wrapped around the necks of the boys who wouldn't submit to Marryin' Sam. They were the main entertain-

By NANCY NYE

Dancin', courtin' and marryin'—dogpatch style—was the rule of entertainment at last Saturday's annual Sadie Hawkins party, held in the high school auditorium. With everybody present but the smooos, there was a record turn out of local yokels with lots of Daisy Maes, Lil Abners, Mammy and Pappy Yokems and even one ferocious Wolf Gal. Invaders from Lower Slobovia was the Mickey Finn Youth Foundations football team.

Also gliding around the floor were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Greeley, John Schwindman and Mr. and Mrs. Clare Ballagh. Mrs. Ballagh was outstanding in her Daisy Mae costume.

Marryin' Sam of course was the presidin' preacher at the amusin' ceremony which "united" the winning couple, Norma Smith and Jim Willis. The brass wedding band had all but sealed the vows when violent objections to the "marriage" were registered by Tom Luke and Nancy Nye who hauled off the would-be bride and groom to save them for another Sadie Hawkins.

ment at the gala affair. The girls were all smiles and the boys were all boys. Marryin' Sam cleaned up.

King and Queen Candidates for Carnival Named

King and Queen candidates for the G. A. A. Carnival have been nominated by the student organizations which have put their candidates up for election annually.

Results so far are as follows: Tribe—Marlene Knower; Girl's League—Bob Anderson; Letterman Society—Adele Woods; G. A. A. Chuck Wilson. Class elections resulted in this outcome: Senior class: King, Joey Flavin, Queen, Barbara Jones. Junior class: King, Eddie Weiss, Queen, Sonja Hulme. Sophomores: King, D. D. Hines, Queen, Marilyn Denton. The freshman class has not yet completed their elections for their king and queen.

The Carnival will be held Dec. 3 in the quadrangle of Palm Springs High School and everyone is urged to bring their friends and attend.

Worried about your financial future? Worst enemy of that bug-aboo is a systematic plan of saving, such as the Payroll Savings Plan. There is no better, surer way to build a financial reserve for the days ahead.

Job's Daughters Achieve Charter

This year Palm Springs has their own chapter of Job's Daughters. Their official number is 186 since they received their charter at a ceremony held at Coachella on October 18. At that time the grand guardian of all bethels in California made her official visit to the Palm Springs Bethel.

The Bethel meets every two weeks at the youth center until the Masonic lodge is built.

Membership is steadily increasing and the Bethel welcome all new members.

While most prices expanded like popcorn...
THE PRICE OF GAS STAYED DOWN!
GAS COSTS YOU LESS TODAY THAN IN 1939
There's as much difference between most prewar and present prices as between a kernel of corn before and after popping. The prices of almost everything you buy have doubled or tripled. One exception is gas! It didn't go up in price. Gas actually costs you less today than in 1939.
The popcorn comparison aptly applies to our expenses too. They're the largest in our history. Extensions to serve new customers, for example, cost us 2 1/2 to 3 times more than before the war. But we have kept down the price of gas to you by 1) serving more gas to more people... 60% more customers than ten years ago... and 2) striving constantly to find new ways to achieve greater efficiency and more economical operation.
Perhaps you have never stopped to consider just how low the cost of gas is. This economy... and superior performance in modern automatic appliances... is why gas is used so widely in Southern California for cooking, water heating, house heating and refrigeration.

SWIMMING CLASSES

Girl Scouts have already commenced swimming classes at Del Tahquitz hotel swimming pool under the competent instruction of Yvonne Canha Kushner and Nancy Kendell.

Mrs. Kushner, who has experience in swimming instruction and water ballet work at Palm Beach and the Bahamas, is contributing her services to carry out a similar program with the girls and of course the idea of the water ballets. Only the Scouts who have earned their Red Cross advance swimmers badges are eligible for this program.

Del Tahquitz Hotel volunteered the use of their swimming pool for this activity and the services of Mrs. Kendell, swimming instructor at the hotel, both of which are greatly appreciated.

HORSEMANSHIP

All Girl Scouts who went to work for their horsemanship badges should be at the Rancho Stables tomorrow. There will be

The second ride for the advanced group will be held on the following Saturday and will also include a luncheon stop.

LEADERS

The Girl Scout organization is very happy to welcome the following Villagers who are going to assist with their program: Mrs. Alfred Sisman as co-leader of Scout Troop VIII; Mrs. A. G. Hoff who will assist any troop interested in a folk dancing program; and Mrs. Gerald Stein who will lend her talents to any troop interested in music, singing or radio broadcasting.

PUPPET SHOW

The series of puppet shows sponsored by the Girl Scouts has come to a successful conclusion and the Scouts would like to take this opportunity to thank all those who contributed to this program. Thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Irving Sussman for presenting the shows with their Marionettes. Thanks to Earl Strebe for the use of the El Paseo Theater. Thanks to all the schools for the distribution of circulars and tickets. Thanks to Wal Spalding for the distribution of tickets, and last but not least, thanks to The Desert Sun for publicity.

Fight to Retain Airplane Taxes

County Airport Director Ted Hannah attended a meeting of the state assembly interim taxation committee at Sacramento Wednesday with one main purpose—to urge retention of taxes on private airplanes on a county level.

The committee considered placing the levies on a state basis and supervisors sent Hannah to the session to campaign against the change. The committee's decision will be made known later.

Indians Meet Perris in Last League Game With Excellent Chance to End Long Drouth

Palm Springs high school Indians will go into action tonight at 8 o'clock on the high school field in the next to the last game of the season and the last Riverside County league game on the schedule.

With one win, two ties and three defeats on the record so far this season, Coach C. E. Ballagh's boys worked hard this week in the hopes of raising that record to a 50-50 basis when the suits are packed away until next fall.

Fun and Dinner On the Hoof at Turkey Snatch

There'll be a real mad house at the Desert Hot Springs ball field tomorrow night at 7:30 when the annual "Turkey Snatch" gets underway.

Many big tom turkeys will be released on the VFW ball field. "You catch 'em, you keep 'em," says John Addington, commander of Post No. 6474 Veterans of Foreign Wars of Desert Hot Springs.

There will be special events for the ladies and even one for men slightly overweight and out of condition.

Following the "Turkey Snatch" on the field, comes the "Turkey Snatcher's Ball," at the Vets club, adjacent to the field. Music will be featured by Mel Mowry and his eight-piece orchestra. Games and door prizes, together with special entertainment round out the evening's program.

Entry fee for the "Turkey Snatch" is one dollar and carries with it free admission to the dance. All proceeds will go to the VFW post park and building fund. Everyone is cordially invited to participate.

on the job at the Indian baths for years rubbing back the health of Villagers and visitors, is incensed. . . . She was speaking about recent stories on Palm Springs in national magazines. . . . They're terrible and a disgrace, she said. . . . She had a copy of a magazine circulated in Texas which had a big spread about Palm Springs and pointed to it as what we should have. . . . That magazine article was devoted to the healthy side of Palm Springs and with appropriate illustrations, showed the beauty spots of the Village. . . . "We should have more like that," she said. . . . And Look magazine, in its article, said we were on a plateau. . . . I always thought we were rather low down—that is speaking in terms of altitude and elevation.

JUDGE THEREAU wants everybody in town who isn't registered, to register. . . . There's no election in sight but it's mighty important, nevertheless. . . . Registration for the last election was high enough to push Palm Springs township of the Class three category into Class two. . . . "That may not seem important to a lot of people but it is to the township. . . . It means greater consideration of us by supervisors and more things for the township. . . . The judge is afraid that when they prune the registration list, enough names may come off to slam us back into three. . . . But a few extra registrations will put us back up, it's that close.

BUTTONS AND BOWS is stuck around the top of the Hill Parade. . . . And music reminds me of two things I'm waiting for anxiously. The lifting of the ban on record making and the return of Connie Barbeau to the singing stage at The Dunes.

THEY MEET Perris high tonight and Blythe next Thursday afternoon to wind up the season. Perris now rests at the bottom of the loop with no victories or ties in five starts. Palm Springs is two places up with no victories in league play but two ties.

Tonight's game will decide the lower strata standings.

SCORES SO FAR this season indicate that the Indians have an excellent chance to break into the win column against the visitors.

Against the same teams, the Indians and Perris performed as follows:

Indians	Opponent	Perris
7-26	Elsinore	13-20
6-6	Beaumont	0-19
7-48	Hemet	6-61
6-23	Banning	0-7

IN A NON-LEAGUE GAME early in the season Palm Springs upset San Jacinto 12-0. In a regular league game San Jacinto hopped on Perris 21-0.

But scores aren't an accurate indication as witness: Palm Springs, three up from the bottom, was the only team this year to hang it on San Jacinto, now at the top of the loop and almost a certainty to take the honors and represent RCL in the southland play-offs.

But the scores give the Indians hope to reverse the trend of league play to date.

P. S. Dodgers Meet Indio Here Sunday

Palm Springs Dodgers, speedy colored local baseball club, will take on the Indio Cubs Sunday afternoon at the Field Club with the first pitch scheduled for 2:30 p. m.

Johnny Gordon of the Dodgers will match his slants against those of Ray Martinez of Indio. J. Sazos will be behind the plate for Gordon and Fred Cerena will do the backstopping for the Cubs.

The Dodgers have a fast team which has topped many outside outfits in the past few weeks.

LOUISIANA HAYRIDE—Former Governor Jimmie Davis' Sunshine Boys go up stage in earnest as they board the vehicle which is the symbol of The Stables and get ready for the grand opening celebration tonight when the popular Village spot gets going for the season. The boys from the bayous can really live up to their organization's name in Palm Springs. (Gayle Photo.)

Grand Opening Celebration Of Palm Springs Stables Village's Big Event Tonight

"Governor" Jimmie Davis' new, set non-political enterprise, the noted Palm Springs Stables, gets under way tonight, with the grand opening celebration for the 1948-49 winter season. Joined with him in the enterprise as his aide-de-camp is Charlie Mitchell, who served Jimmie as Secretary of State for the four year term during which Jimmie served as governor of the state of Louisiana.

Also featured with him in the new project is the famous Sunshine Band, with which he has recorded numerous Decca records, and the Louisiana Hayriders trio of entertainers who will be seen along with the band and the Governor nightly at The Stables.

Imported from the bayou district of Louisiana, for the purpose of concocting the famed Louisiana culinary delight, Louisiana Shrimp a la Creole, is Francois La Fite, whom Jimmie brought out of the bayou for the first time in his life.

As in past years, The Stables' menu will highlight barbecued ribs, while other dishes will include steak dinners, southern fried chicken, and prime ribs of beef.

THE DECOR of The Stables has been mainly retained as it was last year, with the exception of the upstairs night club which has undergone extensive redecorating, in keeping with the western atmosphere of the night club and of Palm Springs itself.

Tonight's opening celebration will feature old-fashioned barn and square dancing to the tune of hoe-down melodies provided by the Sunshine Band. This type of dancing will be continued throughout the season.

Councilman Gaining After Operation

Councilman Ted Martel, who underwent major surgery at the hands of Dr. William Elliott Wednesday morning, was reported by hospital officials as doing nicely last night. The councilman had entered the hospital several days ago.

Fall is Painful

A. G. Chumley, Long Beach, working on a local construction job, fell from a ladder yesterday morning sustaining a fractured right elbow.

To Face Court

William Hastings, charged with burglarizing the office of Dick Maybry almost a year ago, will face Judge Eugene E. Theriault in preliminary hearing at 10 a. m. today.

La Quinta Hotel Plans Aquacade And Fashion Show

Desert aquatics at Hotel La Quinta will climax the coming gala Thanksgiving holiday weekend with an Aquadette Swim Show on Sunday, November 28.

Vicki Manola Draves, American and Olympic champion diver, is programmed to feature the aquatic event. Vicki's achievement of winning both the Springboard and Platform Diving Championships at the London Olympics, is the first time for a girl to annex this double honor. Well known California water star, Anita Lhoest, who holds two national and three western aquatic records, will feature the swimming exhibition.

Preceded by an Aquatic Fashion Show from the Marge Riley Shop during buffet luncheon at the swimming pool, the Aquadette Swim Show under direction of Aileen Allen of the Los Angeles Athletic club, will present a stellar aquatic program highlighted by water ballets, the comedy aquatics of Wes Hammond and Lyle Draves, and an Aquatic Adagio by Joy Crown and Russ Saunders.

Appearing with the Aquadettes will be Marian Frock, Charlotte Bell, Joan Dodd, Pat and Ann Mooney, Larie Elliot, Barbara Reed, Jeanette Herzen, Sharon Geary, Pat Robinson, Marjorie Durant, and divers Pat Keller and Betty Colvin. The aquatic event and fashion show luncheon is open to the public and points to a record attendance.
